Central Committee and in early 1950 he was reported as second in command of the Norwegian Communist Party (Socialist Unity Party). Strand was a member of the Norwegian Cabinet as Labor Minister in 1945 and in 1949 he was the Norwegian alternate representative to the United Nations. In approximately 1949, he visited New York where he is reported to have had close associations with [redacted] and [redacted] and [redacted] and [redacted] who, it is indicated in Bufiles, are known communists in the New York area. In August, 1950, Strand was reported to have mental aberrations and in April, 1951, he was said to have been responsible for a split in the Norwegian Party. No information is available in Bufiles regarding the activities of Strand after 1951.

It is suggested you again discuss the possible use of [redacted] in this operation with NY 694-S*. Reiterate to the informant your plans to use a "cutout" in this operation to protect his security and also suggest that he should consider the possibility of having some of his close Communist Party associates make inquiries concerning the background and reliability of [redacted]. This latter action would further protect the security of the informant, in the remote event [redacted] was compromised, by having an additional "scapegoat" available.

You are reminded that the informant's Soviet contact initially requested he be furnished the identities of 3 Americans not associated with the Communist Party to "work with us" (Soviets) in October, 1963. On 12/6/63, this Soviet reiterated his request and requested NY 694-S* to handle the matter soon. Our failure to locate a suitable candidate for referral by the informant to the Soviets may have an adverse effect on the confidence placed in our informant by the Soviets. You are urged to give this matter expeditious attention and it is suggested you carefully review your files to determine if a panel source, a potential security informant, or a subject of a contact case would be suitable for this operation.

To date, you have not advised if Lem Harris has taken any action on the request of NY 694-S* for the identity of a "legitimate" recruit for referral to the Soviets. Immediately advise in this regard.

NOTE:

The Soviet contact of NY 694-S* has requested the informant to furnish him the identities of 3 individuals to "work with us" (Soviets). We have worked out a plan to refer individuals in our control to the informants through NY 694-S* utilizing a "cutout." However, NY 694-S* disapproved the first individual suggested to him for this operation and he continues to entertain doubts regarding [redacted] who has been suggested to him. In addition, we have suggested to New York, and New York has concurred, that it would be wise to refer a "legitimate" recruit to the Soviets. Informant on 1/20/64 requested Lem Harris, active Communist Party member, to recommend the latter type of recruit but to date we have received no word that such a recommendation by Harris has been made.

b6
b7c

This matter is being followed closely inasmuch as the Soviets have indicated a desire to receive the names of individuals to be used by them soon.

The plain text is set forth below. The cipher text is attached.

TO REFEREE (Central Committee). EDWARD LAMB (repeat) EDWARD LAMB, IS A WELL-KNOWN AND RESPECTED CAPITALIST IN COVE (USA) WHO, IN MY PERSONAL OPINION, IS MORE POLITICALLY ASTUTE THAN CYRUS EATON, (repeat) CYRUS EATON, AND, IF PROPERLY UTILIZED COULD NOW PLAY AN IMPORTANT ROLE IN FURTHERING CLOSER FRIENDSHIP BETWEEN NEST (USSR) AND COVE (USA), AND AS A BUSINESS TYCOON, COULD PAVE THE WAY FOR GREATLY IMPROVED TRADE RELATIONSHIPS BETWEEN COVE (USA) AND NEST (USSR). HE IS AN IMPORTANT POLITICAL FORCE WITHIN THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY COUNCILS AND IN GOVERNMENT CIRCLES. HE IS ACCEPTED IN THE BROAD BUSINESS AND MONOPOLISTIC CIRCLES AS THE NEW, REALISTIC VOICE FOR AMERICAN BUSINESS IN THIS NEW ERA. HE UNDERSTANDS THE NEED FOR IMPROVED ECONOMIC RELATIONSHIPS BETWEEN THE CAPITALIST AND SOCIALIST WORLDS. BIRCH: (Gus Hall).

Re: SOLO

TO REFEREE (Central Committee) - CONFIDENTIAL. I SUGGEST THAT IT WOULD BE IN YOUR INTEREST IF EDWARD LAMB (repeat) EDWARD LAMB, WERE INVITED TO NEST (USSR) BY YOUR TRADE INSTITUTIONS ON A STRICTLY BUSINESS BASIS. YOUR INTEREST IN HIM SHOULD BE ATTRIBUTED TO YOUR KNOWLEDGE OF HIS TALKS AND WRITINGS REGARDING IMPROVED ECONOMIC RELATIONSHIPS BETWEEN COVE (USA) AND NEST (USSR). WE KNOW EACH OTHER FOR MANY YEARS, AND HAVE A SECRET RELATIONSHIP. AT NO TIME HOWEVER, MUST ANYONE KNOW THIS NOR SHOULD MY NAME BE MENTIONED TO HIM AT ANY TIME. IF HE IS INVITED TO NEST (USSR) IT SHOULD BE AN INVITATION BASED ONLY ON HIS POSITION IN THE FINANCIAL WORLD AND ON HIS UNDERSTANDING OF THE NEW ERA. BIRCH (Gus Hall).

WE HAVE HEARD INDIRECTLY THAT BETTY (repeat) BETTY GRAND-DAUGHTER OF ROOT (William Z. Foster) (repeat) ROOT IS ILL. CAN YOU PLEASE SEND ME A REPORT. BIRCH (Gus Hall).

During the early morning of 2/15/64 Supervisor [redacted] of the New York Office telephonically contacted the extra duty supervisor at the Riddell Building. [redacted] advised that as the Bureau is aware Solo is scheduled to have a meeting in New York tonight. In connection with this, New York learned that Elizabeth Gurley Flynn had contacted CG 5824-S and advised that Henry Winston's passport (Winston is presently in Moscow) is due to expire in a day or so. Flynn requested that NY 694-S be furnished a message instructing him to get word to Winston of the expiration of his U. S. passport. In addition, Winston was to be advised that he should go to the American Embassy in Moscow in an effort to get this passport renewed. If unsuccessful, Winston should attempt to obtain U. S. travel papers from the British Embassy in Moscow or the British Embassy in London.

[redacted] said he was aware that in connection with the Bureau's Counterintelligence Program considerations were being given at the Seat of Government regarding the lifting of Winston's passport upon his arrival in the United States. The purpose of [redacted] call was (1) to give the Bureau the opportunity to take any action in connection with our Counterintelligence Program and (2) to determine if the Bureau had any objection to NY 694-S sending the message to Moscow through his contact.

This matter was discussed with the Internal Security Section and it was decided that the New York Office should be advised that NY 694-S should pass Elizabeth Gurley Flynn's message on to his contact for transmittal to Moscow. To do otherwise would jeopardize informant's position.

RE: SOLO

No action is being taken to advise the State Department of the likelihood that Winston will apply at the American Embassy in Moscow. We have already advised the State Department of the fact Winston intends to return to the United States on 2/29/64, so that the State Department can pick up his passport if it so desires. To furnish State the latest information would seriously jeopardize the informant because as far as we know it is a matter known only to Flynn and the informant.

ReBuairtel, 2/5/64, captioned "SOLO; INTERNAL SECURITY - C".

Reairtel concerns itself with information furnished by [redacted] concerning the transmission of $50,000 to the Communist Party (CP), USA by KOLOBASHKIN through NY 694-S*. There are admittedly some discrepancies between the information furnished by [redacted] and the facts as we know them from NY 694-S*. Information concerning the transmission of $50,000 to the CP, USA was received from [redacted] on 1/24/64, at which time this informant said that the funds were transferred to the CP, USA, ~~on 1/24/64~~.

The facts as we know them from NY 694-S* are that on 12/9/63, NY 694-S* conveyed a request from the CP, USA to the Soviets for $50,000. This request was thereafter approved but the sum was reduced to $30,000 and this sum of money was actually transmitted to the CP, USA through NY 694-S* on 1/31/64 by KOLOBASHKIN.

This office believes that the transmission concerning which [redacted] furnished information and the transmission concerning which NY 694-S* furnished information are one and the same.

b7D On 2/6/64, [redacted] was recontacted concerning the information obtained by him from KOLOBASHKIN concerning these funds and [redacted] furnished precisely the same information which he furnished on 1/24/64.

In order to appreciate the possibility that there could be some discrepancy in information furnished by [redacted] we must first realize that he is usually interviewed for periods of time approximating 4 hours. During these interviews, he furnishes information which has come to his attention during the course of a week or two. The information which he furnishes is furnished almost without exception from memory. Consequently, there always exists the possibility that some slight misinterpretation or misunderstanding could exist or that his recollection of certain facts or circumstances could be slightly in error.

We must next appreciate the fact that this very sensitive informant is furnishing information about an extremely security conscious organization, namely, the KGB, and in the case of KOLOBASHKIN is furnishing information about the activities of a branch of the NY Residency of the KGB with which he is not intimately familiar.

b7D It is the opinion of this office that the information furnished by [redacted] is, in fact, accurate as it relates to the transmission of funds to the CP, USA, but that there is, in fact, some discrepancy as to the date on which these funds were actually transmitted, and the sum.

This office does not question the reliability of [redacted] or NY 694-S* in the slightest. Both of Investigation Performed During the Past 90 Days

During the past 90 days the subject has, on several occasions been scheduled for spot fisur coverage. Subject, on those days, was not observed to leave the SMUN during most of those periods and when he was observed nothing of an intelligence significance was noted.

A review of the subject's entrances to and exits from the SMUN continues to reflect that subject is spending more time than in previous periods at the SMUN. It is surmised that this is due to the extra duties imposed upon subject as post-man for the Security Branch of the KGB. The fact that subject is spending more time at the SMUN may also be attributed to the fact that telephone and "walkie-talkie" signals have replaced the need for some of KOLOBASHKIN's appearances in signal areas personally.

In reference to "walkie-talkie" signals, it should be noted that when subject recently met with NY 694-S* they discussed the fact that NY 694-S* had apparently been having trouble receiving transmissions from subject on NY 694-S*' receiver.

In discussing this situation, NY 694-S* and subject agreed that there was apparently something "mechanically wrong" with their "walkie-talkie" operation and that it probably involved reception in the informants home area. They then agreed on further tests of the "walkie-talkie" method of signals. It was further agreed that should the informant not receive future Soviet signals, and should the Soviets find it necessary to contact the informant during the month of December, 1963, the informant would be notified to that effect by radio from Moscow.

KOLOBASHKIN's Mobil Oil Credit Card Account, as monitored by the Philadelphia Division during the past 90 days, reflected purchases made in the vicinity of New York City and in Bayville, L.I., NY, the location of the Soviet estate on L.I. Three purchases were also shown for Long Island City, NY. A check for the October, 1963, billing date failed to reflect any purchases by the subject for that month. It appears that the purchases noted are not of an unusual nature since they are for the months of August and September, 1963, and would be in agreement with the subject's travels to the summer resort areas where the Soviets reside.

During the past 90 days, four personal meetings between subject and NY 694-S* have taken place. No drops were utilized during the 90 day period.

During a meeting on 10/23/63, subject requested that NY 694-S* furnish him with the names and addresses of three reliable white male Americans in the 20 - 30 years of age bracket, progressive, but not having been associated with the Communist Party (CP). Subject stated that the Russians had in mind that those individuals would "work with us". On a subsequent meeting between subject and NY 694-S*, subject again requested that informant furnish him with the three names and addresses.

In relation to the foregoing, the NYO reviewed the files of sources and former sources who might fill the pre-requisites set by the Soviets. Two such individuals were recommended for consideration by the Bureau in this matter and their names and backgrounds set forth in NY airtel 11/14/63.

WFO [redacted] has also advised, during the past 90 days, that photographs of the subject and his wife were shown to [redacted] (protect identity), [redacted] who has furnished reliable information in the past, by SAs MAURICE A. TAYLOR and ALEKSO POPTANICH, and he was not able to furnish any pertinent information.

b6
b7D

[redacted] and [redacted], during the past 90 days, have reported that subject has been in contact with individuals at the Amtorg Trading Corporation (ATC) and Intourist respectively. No information of an intelligence nature was developed from those contacts.

b7D

In November, 1963, [redacted] advised that subject had told him that Colonel BORIS IVANOV has sent a communication to Moscow recommending that the KGB there arrange to procure a 5 $\frac{1}{2}$ room apartment for the subject. The subject mentioned to [redacted] that at the present time he has an exceptionally small apartment in Moscow. Subject gave the informant no indication as to what had prompted the recommendation on IVANOV's part.

NY 105-36402

[redacted] additionally advised that he had learned later from VLADIMIR A. CHUCHUKIN that Colonel IVANOV had made recommendations to KGB Headquarters, in Moscow, that subject be given a much larger apartment than the one he now has. The informant further advised, at that time, that CHUCHUKIN had stated that about the middle of October, 1963, subject had an assignment of transmitting, under complete security, the sum of $200,000.00 in American currency to a representative of the CP of the US. CHUCHUKIN further stated that he had assisted subject in that operation. CHUCHUKIN also told the informant that because of subject's success in his venture, and because of other fine work which subject has performed in the past, IVANOV decided to make the above mentioned recommendations to KGB Headquarters in Moscow. b7D

[redacted] said that CHUCHUKIN furnished him with no details concerning the specific date of the transmittal of those funds, nor did he indicate where the meeting had occurred or to whom the money was transferred. b7D

A review of the yearly budget of funds granted to the CP, USA by the Soviets failed to reflect any such payment to that organization. Further, it is believed that the informant has probably distorted and confused information furnished by CHUCHUKIN regarding the transmittal of funds and the pertinent period in question. A review of all pertinent factors involved would seem to indicate that the transmittal of funds mentioned by the informant is in most probability the same transaction undertaken by the Soviets in June, 1963. It is to be noted that at that time, the Soviets transmitted a sum of $300,000.00 to the CP, USA. Information involving this transfer of funds was set out in NY airtel, dated 6/11/63.

It was further noted that the Soviet expression of pleasure at the successful culmination of the transfer of the $300,000.00 in June of 1963, was in most ways similar to that expressed by CHUCHUKIN to the source concerning CHUCHUKIN's relating of the story involving the transfer of the $200,000.00 to the CP, USA.

Future transmittal of such funds to the CP, USA by the CP, USSR will be closely followed and the transmittal of such funds evaluated in order to determine if extra appropriations are being made to the CP, USA by the CP, USSR. If information is developed which would indicate such activity, the Bureau will be immediately notified and further action will be undertaken in this regard.

Investigation Planned for the Next 90 Days

The NYO intends to intensify spot fisur coverage of the subject on an irregular basis, in an effort to further determine subject's social and intelligence contacts. As has been previously pointed out, in prior communications, subject deals exclusively with representatives of the CP, USA in his intelligence activities. It is hoped that these spot fisurs will further clarify subject's role in intelligence work and might possibly determine if subject has been contacting other CP officials, exclusive of NY 694-S*.

NY 105-36402

It is to be noted that in relation to the subject's furnishing of radio signaling devices to NY 694-S* that the Bureau laboratory has installed special equipment in order to attempt to pick up the signal transmitted by the informant in the vicinity of the SMUN. In view of the fact that the subject and NY 694-S* have not yet definitely decided what the future procedure is to be in relation to their signaling schedule, no present adequate evaluation of the reception of the special equipment is possible. Future utilization of this specially installed equipment will be maintained and the results followed at the NYO in order to determine if it is possible to install such equipment on a permanent basis in order to follow, or discover, the utilization of such techniques by the Soviets.

The NYO will continue to review subject's entrances to and exits from the SMUN in order to afford more adequate fisur coverage of subject and to better evaluate subject's activities.

The NYO will continue to follow developments in this case relating ^{to the} development of source to be placed in contact with the Soviets through NY 694-S*, as previously set forth.

The NYO will further continue to review and evaluate informant and regarding development of these individuals.

b7D

The NYO will also continue to follow information received from established sources and will communicate pertinent information to the Bureau by appropriate means.

NY 105-36402

Evaluations and Observations

It is to be noted, as previously set forth, that the subject has been spending a greater amount of time within the confines of the SMUN Building. In all probability, this is due to the more extensive paper work in which the subject has become engaged since assuming duties as a postman for the security branch of the KGB.

There has been no indication that subject has been engaged in intelligence activities other than that which he conducts in his handling of NY 694-S*. From all indications, in the past, it would adhere that subject personally handles all activities in his operations with NY 694-S* despite his assistance in minor phases of this operation by CHUCHUKIN.

It does not appear at this time that the Soviets are entirely satisfied with the progress of their "walkie-talkie" signaling operation. However, their persistence in again testing this operation, and its follow up by the Soviets, seems to indicate that if a satisfactory results are obtained from future operations this signal method will be utilized on an intensive basis by the Soviets. It further appears that this method, if found satisfactory, will probably be used to signal for all future meetings and drops, and that personal and telephone signals will be eliminated.

All pertinent data has been furnished the Bureau by previous communication, most of which has been furnished under the "solo" caption.

A Chapter from the Glorious Fight for Freedom and a Testimony About Horrible Torture

A quisling denounced the [redacted] to the Gestapo the day after a German raid on all cafes and restaurants in the Storgatan (—a street) in Oslo. He was taken to the Viktoriaterasse and — (a few words follow, not legible in original), where he stayed four months, and then he was transferred to Sachsenhausen. [redacted] had been active in the military section of the homefront before his arrest. He began his illegal activities with the publication of a newspaper, then became the leader of an illegal group, received military training and ingratiated himself with the quisling police and thus had many opportunities of serving the cause of the Norwegian people.

b7c

A cafe in the Storgatan became some kind of a meeting place for [redacted] group and other members of the homefront. They met quite casually and exchanged views about the weather and wind. A quisling reported them to the Gestapo and some members of the homefront were arrested. The arrests were continued for days and also [redacted] was fetched by three fully-armed — (several words follow, not legible in original) in the pocket which he had succeeded in — (?) on the way and he ate up every bit until the Viktoriaterasse was reached. There he established contact with another resistance policeman who saw to it that all evidence seized in [redacted] home was removed. [redacted] was likewise arrested. [redacted] and as both could communicate with each other, it was very simple for them to furnish concordant "evidence" during the subsequent interrogation. Thus, after a few weeks, the

The Oslo Rowing Club Became A Fighting Organization

b7c

[redacted] people's fight for freedom. He did not stress upon his own contribution at all, but viewed it ^{as} a matter of course that he should participate in the fight. He established contact with the homefront through a relative and the result was that the Oslo Rowing Club to which [redacted] became a fighting organization. A leader of the homefront declared before the members of this rowing club at the first secret meeting that, after they had joined the front, they would not have the slightest chance of retreating from it. All joined. Boys signed up and girls formed a cycling nursing patrol.

b7c

Thus the activities started. Under a hill near the rowing club premises a cave was dug and so well camouflaged that [redacted] doubted that it would ever be detected by the Germans. There they received news from London which were stenographed and then sneaked into an office in town during the night, where they typed this news and stenciled it in "Liberty, Equality, Fraternity." Then it was distributed at dawn in factories, homes, offices and different places of work. The first edition had 250 copies. Subsequently, the pamphlet's name was changed to "Resistance Post" and 1,000 copies were finally issued and distributed in Oslo and even in other cities.

The Homefront's Organization

b7c

Threats by the Gestapo and the risk of discovery caused the leadership of the homefront to issue an order not to engage in agitation, military activities and terror acts. [redacted] joined the military section and became the leader of an eight-man group. The homefront was divided into groups of eight men with a leader. Four groups formed a troop and four troops a company. Each troop had a civilian and a military leader, who did not know each other. The men only knew the group leader. If someone was arrested and tortured in order to make him confess, he could only name his own leader. All, who had principal missions, appeared in masquerade at the meetings and the military exercises, as it happened on one occasion, could be held under the noses of the Germans. In Smalvattnet, about an hour away from Oslo, at one time an orientation course was held with 350 homefront troopers. The members were trained in the use of various automatic weapons of English, Russian and German origin, and in the demolishing of bridges and wrecking of German vehicles. The offer of [redacted] group to put a few pieces of sugar in the gasoline tanks almost every week, was, of course, hailed.

Furthermore, they practised a new English method of silencing and quickly surprising sentries. The so-called terror groups were ordered to liquidate informers. There was a perfectly legal death penalty pronounced by the homefront and there were those who had only the right to shoot down whoever deserved it. This could be done without any danger of discovery.

Propaganda Material Smuggled in From Sweden

[redacted] years old in 1940, when he began to distribute news from London and he continued his illegal activity up to the time of his arrest. During that time he accomplished considerable feats, mostly in the capacity of a policeman in quising clothes. It was amusing, he said, to "leave behind" propaganda material which had been smuggled into Norway from Sweden and England. It was like magic that such a sticker appeared at a place where nothing had been found before. A person touched for a moment with his palm a rail, a wall, a plank, and so on, when passing by. In the palm was a gummed sticker and no one could see that such a person left a "bookmark" behind. This propaganda had a big psychological effect upon the occupation troops, because these stickers, as a rule, indicated the coming defeat and drew parallels with 1918. Therefore, this act was punishable by death. It was difficult to place the big posters; however, also this was done; of course, in the dark of the night. At one time [redacted] was almost arrested on the Drammensvejen. During a "sticker raid" he had dropped a bundle of stickers and pencils and run around the street in the darkness. Suddenly a ray of light broke through the darkness and a policeman came running. [redacted] who did not have any chance of escape, believed that the game was up. But the man was not a policeman, but a policeman of the resistance movement.

The Police Organized the Flight from the Ullevaals Hospital

The joining of the quisling police very considerably facilitated the illegal work. [redacted] at the Ullevaals Hospital where political prisoners were housed. The policemen were rarely armed, but for guard duty up there the men received automatic pistols and some of them were somewhat worn out. Those pistols were used as instruction material for the men of the homefront.

From the Ullevaals Hospital the resistance police helped many people to freedom and also meetings were arranged between the inmates and the homefront men, sick relatives and friends. Among those who were aided in escaping to Sweden, was the lawyer Capplen whom the Germans had sentenced to death. From the Akersbergsgvejen prison the police also aided many in their escape. When three persons sentenced to death were about to be executed; just to name one case, three armed "German" soldiers appeared in the prison, fetched them and, shortly afterwards, the three men were safely in Sweden. They were accused of having been members of the "Secret Service." However, Capplen's brother was unable to escape.

He was among those who were subjected to the worst torture imaginable. [redacted] knows (he was informed by quislings) that all of his nails were pulled out; wooden splinters were put into his flesh and then ignited. His feet were burned with a blow torch.

b7c

At the police department, the men of the homefront could even prepare false passports with which the persons, hunted by the Gestapo, could escape to the border regions, where it was a simple matter to reach Sweden safely.

[redacted] reveals that the worst thing ^{was} that a man was regarded as a quisling until he was arrested.

Rabbit on the Menu a Whole Month

All compasses, tents and weapons were seized. But for the homefront this did not matter; on the contrary, [redacted] troop had, among other things, a big stock of weapons in Aarvoll, outside of Oslo, directly in the Germans' trajectory. Further up in Aarvoll, they had a rabbit farm. This was owing to the fact that the people, who had to go underground had to have something to eat. However, the Gestapo had heard about it and seized the rabbit farm. On the following night the German guard was surprised and then [redacted] family had rabbits to eat for an entire month.

b7c

A German lieutenant, Otto Toepper, who, of course, did not know anything about the matter, had secretly provided some Norwegians with food ration cards. [] became his "good friend," treated him a little bit and played the role of a genuine quisling. The profit consisted of important information about the German military exercises and arms supplies and of numerous ration cards which were then distributed among those who had to eat in hiding. Most of the homefront members had two residences; their own home and an apartment rented under a false name.

On August 12, 1943, the raid in the Storgatan took place. [] was on guard duty there. A quisling had reported to the Gestapo that [] usually stayed at a cafe and at 5 o'clock in the morning he was arrested. In Germany, [] met some of his former cofighters; among them, a chauffeur, who, one night, drove away a big stock of merchandise which the homefront had captured from the Germans. There he also met a man from the Ullevaals Hospital, where [] had been on duty. Their paths crossed again in Sweden. Now [] was ready to continue his activities; however, his arrest prevented them. His immediate hope is to accompany a delegation to Germany to look for the disappeared Norwegians.

My letter of December 11, 1963, with enclosure, contained a summary of a letter from Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev to MAO Tse-tung, Chairman, Communist Party of China, dated November 29, 1963, dealing with the matter of amelioration of Sino-Soviet relations.

Material in the enclosed memorandum was supplied by a source which has furnished reliable information in the past. The enclosed memorandum summarizes a letter that the Central Committee of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union recently sent to the Communist Party, USA, dealing with the current status of Sino-Soviet relations. The letter emphasizes the concern of the Soviets over the continued dissident actions on the part of the Chinese, and concludes that there is an urgent need for the calling of a conference of representatives of all Communist Parties in an effort to counter the anti-Leninist stand of the Chinese which is designed to disorganize the ranks of the communist movement.

Because of the sensitive nature of our source we have classified this communication and its enclosure "Top Secret." This information has been furnished to the Honorable Walter W. Jenkins, Special Assistant to the President, and other interested officials of the Government.

Dear Mr. Rusk:

My letter of February 20, 1964, with enclosure, contained information that the Central Committee of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union planned to publish all documents of its current plenary session dealing with the dissident action of the Chinese.

FEB 24 9 57 AM '64

The following information was supplied by a source which has furnished reliable information in the past.

The Central Committee of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union has decided to hold in abeyance the planned publication of its current plenary session documents. This is being done as the result of an urgent appeal currently being made by fraternal parties to the Central Committee of the Communist Party of China calling for an immediate end to open polemics in the Sino-Soviet rift. However, if the Chinese leadership does not accede to this appeal, the Communist Party of the Soviet Union and other fraternal parties intend to express their views openly in the press concerning the dissident action of the Chinese.

Because of the sensitive nature of our source we have classified this communication "~~Top Secret~~." This information is being furnished to other interested officials of the Government.

In view of the foregoing, it is believed that subject was making reference to his wife, AFANASEVNA E. KOLOBASHKINA, when he stated that his "chief" was in the area. This analysis is further born out when it is considered that neither of the subject's two sons, ages 10 and 5, accompanied subject and his wife during their absence from the SMUN.

Further, it has been the subject's habit to depart the SMUN with either CHUCHUKIN or ANATOLI V. GRODSKY, prior to his meetings with NY 694-S* in the past year. In view of this, it is surmised that subject probably utilized his wife as security personnel during the meeting on 2/6/64. The NYO will follow KOLOBASHKINA's activities and further meet dates in order to determine if she accompanies subject during his absence from the SMUN on those dates.

Dear Mr. Rusk:

My letter of December 11, 1963, with enclosure, contained a summary of a letter from Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev to MAO Tse-tung, Chairman, Communist Party of China, dated November 29, 1963, dealing with the matter of amelioration of Sino-Soviet relations.
